8. FERF to work closely with other committees of NRNA on foreign employment issues.
9. FERF members are requested for financial contribution of any amount of their capacity.
10. FERF members are requested to send their suggestions and ideas for effective functioning of the committee.

Important issues discussed:

1. Many members insisted on matching of NRNA's fund with the fund of Nepal Government to support migrant workers in need. GoN especially FEPB has fund which should be utilized for the rescue and relief of migrant workers.
2. FERF committee should prepare guideline for the nature of cases to be supported. Genuine cases to be selected, giving priority to case of death sentence. There are other cases including driving where different legal measures are applied. Driving orientation, awareness about traffic rules should be provided to the migrant workers before they leave for destination countries.
3. There is a need of coordination between NRNA, GoN and Embassy for the rescue and relief of the migrant workers in distress.

4. Rewati Paudel, Consulate General of Nepal for Saudi Arabia present the case of Nagendra Lama who is in need of 2,000 Saudi Riyal and ask for the NRNA support. It was decided that the amount can be collected in coordination with NCC Saudi Arabia.
5. Rohan Gurung, Chairman NAFEA present the fact that FEPB has sufficient fund for the rescue and relief of migrant workers but due to lack of proper guideline government is not able to utilize and mobilize the fund. Manpower agencies is also one of the partner and has been contributing for the rescue of migrant workers.
6. It is essential for embassies and also workers to understand destination countries' laws including labour law so that whenever any migrant workers comes in conflict of law embassy could support it. Nepalese embassy should proactively speak on behalf of migrant workers to provide them justice.
7. There are many women migrant workers facing various problems in destination countries. FERF need to address and focused on these problems and provide them relief.
8. Regional conveners and fundraising coordinators committed their support from their respective region for the successful tenure of FERF committee.
